We give you thanks, Lord, for perfect arms when so many have suffered mutilation.

For perfect eyes when so many cannot see.

For voices that sing when so many are reduced to silence.

For hands that work when so many beg.

O wondrous Lord, to have a home to return to when there are so many brothers and sisters who have nowhere to go.

To smile, to dream, to love, when so many cry, and so many hate each other.

Above all, to have little to ask you for and so much to thank you for.

-Diocese of Juigalpa, Nicaragua
